

FRONT SUSPENSION

Description

A double wishbone type independent suspension is used. It ensures a greater design freedom and permits an ideal wheel alignment selection.

The result is an outstanding straight-forward stability at high speeds, turning and braking stability.

Suspension friction is also reduced at each portion of the suspension components for good vehicle controllability, stability and riding comfort.

