

FRONT SUSPENSION

Description

A double wishbone type independent suspension is used. It ensures the greater design freedom, permits and ideal wheel alignment selection.

The result is an outstanding straight-forward stability at high speeds, turning and braking stability. Suspension friction is also reduced at each portion of the suspension for good vehicle controllability, stability and riding comfort.

